VICE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

A Letter from the Penn Theta Board

Dear Penn Theta SAE
Alumni Brothers:

Phi Alpha!

The Fall session has started and Actives have returned to the Chapter and our House. All are excited to be together again and plan a year of scholastic and athletic achievement, School and community service projects and Brother-bonding social events including with Penn SAE alums.

We enter the Fall session with 60 active members, of which 14 are in residence in house, all singles. About 30 Brothers are on House meal plan.

The overriding problem causing this low occupancy (capacity about 25) is due to Penn's policy of requiring Sophomores to live in campus housing (definition excludes Fraternity and Sorority houses even when Penn owned) and with School meal plans that is making it difficult to fill the House. Most actives not living in the House are in fact living together in other campus or off-campus housing so living together is not the issue; the issue is where. The architect of Penn's disastrous program has left the School's employment but not after attempting to destroy Penn's Greek community.

We are doing our best to push back on the above School policy and all Greek houses are suffering similar consequences. We brief you here so that you can add to our voices in your own interactions, communications and financial support of the School. Your comments sent directly to the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life (OFSL) would be greatly appreciated and may be best directed to:

Don't forget the importance of the Penn Theta SAE Scholarship Fund that serves to financially assist "highly aided" Penn students wishing to become part of our SAE Brotherhood and qualifying to do so except for the expense of membership and House residency. Penn Theta alumni generously got this Fund off to a great start in 2021-2022 with donations to-date of $135,000. We have 6 Brothers qualifying for this support, 10% of our Active roster, all of whom are living in the House (required) and adding diversity, drive and talent to our Brotherhood. We expect that our total outlay to support these True Gentlemen will be about $3,000 to $5,000 payable to them post-semester. Please consider additional Giving to this Fund by accessing:

Please make sure you reference Penn Theta when making your pledges and donations. Thank you for your generous support in this important endeavor to which I am personally dedicating the majority of my Penn and SAE donations.

Please send us news of your life's accomplishments and current activities to share

SAE has given me lifelong friends and the best stories ever

Paul F. Schuster '89 (pschuster@lockelord.com) remembers the day that he decided to join SAE. "It had such a friendly and fun brotherhood," he said.

"We had all different types of personalities and experiences. We did not fit into any stereotype."

One of the memories that stands out for him is of "The Paddy Murphy procession down Locust Walk with a coffin."

Schuster says that SAE has impacted him long after graduation. "I have stayed friends with the brothers. I lived with Chris Viadro '89 and Tim Ballard '89 in San Francisco for a year after law school. The 50th Birthday celebration in Chicago for Lee Shavel '89 was awesome."

He says that giving back to the chapter is important to him. "I want others to experience the same camaraderie and support that I received."

Without Sigma Alpha Epsilon, I wouldn't have most of my most entertaining and outrageous stories.

ALUMNI WEEKEND AND 30TH REUNION DINNER

"Was great seeing all the full range of SAE alums."

Over Alumni Weekend, some brothers got together for the 30th reunion, check out what the brothers said about the weekend below:

"Was great seeing all the full range of SAE alums. Thought there was more energy in the house than I've seen in years. I will be donating for sure."

"Class of '97 had a strong showing, taking down recent alums and current students at many of the new SAE games."

"So the weekend is finally over and as always, you can always return home to SAE Penn Theta."

"Started with a fantastic event in NYC on Thursday night (I think about 19 brothers crew. Some of us then went on an adventure where it took us almost 2 hours to find a cheese steak in North Philadelphia (not a typo) because it is always good to challenge yourself, versus just going to Ginos/Pats."

"I have to give major credit to our SAE brothers who are currently at Penn. In all of the years that I have attended these events, I have never seen so many current brothers so engaged with the alumni. These brothers were beyond fantastic (we now have about 9 members of the Penn swim team in the

ended up coming, along with 3 of their sons) at The Globe. Saturday, the highlight was a great time at the SAE house for our afternoon event where we met up with some of the legends of the 25th reunion

with other Penn Theta alumni as well as our Actives. Make sure you include comments about how your participation in Penn Theta SAE helped you in your further professional and personal pursuits. Pictures are always welcome! These stories help motivate our current Actives and are a positive contributor to our new Member pledging efforts.

One important way to help Penn Theta Active Brothers is to provide summer internships and as well as post-graduate full time positions career positions. We highlighted the fantastic academic and other achievements of the Class of 2021 Penn Theta graduates and what a stellar group they are! For those looking for top talent in your organizations, and who isn't, please consider Penn Theta members in your recruitment goals. If you want to send me contact information and opportunities, we will make sure they are distributed to the Actives as well as alumni SAEs.

Look forward to hearing from you and hopefully seeing you at 3908 Spruce!

In the Bond,

Brother Steve Sloan, W77

Welcome the newest grads to Alumni Brotherhood!

It is with great honor that we announce the newest fraternity alums! We reached out to our newest grads and asked them what they gained from SAE, why they joined, and where they are headed after graduation. Join us in welcoming them to the alumni brotherhood!
